UP-COMING JANUARY MEETING

Jania Taylor

Getting a Gig is a Full Time Job

January 19, 2010
7pm

If you are a seasoned pro, a part time pro, or just starting out as a magician, you know that getting booked for shows is WORK! Don't be fooled; the phone will not ring by magic, you have to make it ring! Ms. Taylor has spent the last two decades criss-crossing the country performing at thousands of events. How did she do this? She became her own agent! Show business is two words: show and business. We are bringing Jania to ACEs to help increase your business. Through trial and error, she has paid for her education when it comes to the marketing of magical services.

She will ease your marketing learning curve with her lecture "Getting A Gig Is A Full Time Job." She is now sharing with the magic community what has worked for her.

She has done the work for you by spending hours reading through marketing books and attending seminars. Cut to the chase of getting more performances with "Getting A Gig Is A Full Time Job." Compared to other marketing system that you can buy this is a bargain!

You really don't want to miss this Lecture. With the economy so tight we can all use Jania's sound, tested and proved methods for generating more income.

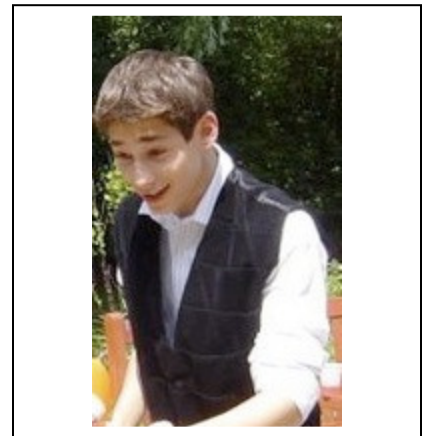

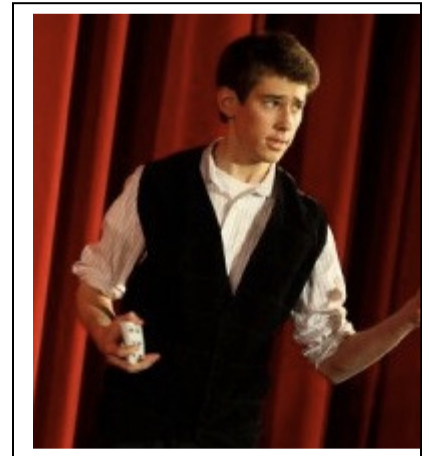

Tuesday, January 19th, 7:00 PM - Hackney's in Wheeling (241 s. Milwaukee, Ave, Wheeling)

Members - FREE Non-Members $20.00

Additional Lecture notes will be available with samples etc. for an additional $20.

ACEs Member Focus: DANNY DUBIN

At only 16 years old ACEs Member Danny Dubin is going somewhere...Really...He's on his way to Las Vegas!!! As a sophomore in high school Danny has been studying the art of magic half his life. While attending day camp at age eight he was able to choose different activities each day. One day while taking a clowning class the instructor suggested he go to P.J.'s Trick Shop and he did. There he bought his first magic trick and of course caught 'the magic bug'. Now Danny is on his way to Las Vegas at the end of February to attend the World Magic Seminar and has been selected as a contestant in the Teen Stage Magic Competition. He was at a friends house when he first saw the e-mail notification and couldn't stop screaming and running around the house! He loves both close-up and stage magic but lately has been focusing a lot of his attention on his stage act due to the up-coming trip to Vegas. He cites Lance Burton as one of his major influences – He respects him as a family show entertainer and appreciates how he mixes up the classic magic and illusion from the past with the modern wonders of the present as well as his theatrical sensibility. Being in his schools Swing Choir gives Danny a chance to polish his own theatrical and performance skills. He's also been known to enjoy a challenging game of Ultimate Frisbee! Aces Members got a preview of his competition act at the December meeting and let's just say this kid has what it takes to go somewhere. Really! Best of luck in Las Vegas, Danny!!!

And Finally:* YOU MIGHT BE A MAGICIAN IF...

You might be a magician if it really matters to you how someone shuffles your deck.
